

Institutsseminare im WS 11/12

08/11/11 Prof. R. Claßen-Bockhoff "Towards an ontogenetic understanding of inflorescence diversity"	10/01/12 Dr. Abby Moore "Progress in research on Minuartia laricifolia"
15/11/11 Dr. Berit Gehrke "Spikelet structure and evolution in Cariceae"	17/01/12 Johannes Klein "Resolving the Phylogeny of Sempervivum s.l.: Variable Progress"
22/11/11 Prof. J.W. Kadereit "Evolutionary history of Welsh Poppy, Meconopsis cambrica"	24/01/12 Maria Will "Why Africa matters - evolution of at least one unique character in the Old World sages"
29/11/12 Torsten Collet "Architecture and development of floral differentiated inflorescences (Hydrangeaceae)"	31/01/12 Rüdiger Masson und Maximilian Lauterbach "Biogeography of the drought- and salt-tolerant C4-shrub Anabasis (Chenopodiaceae)"
06/12/11 Markus Dillenbeger "An overview of Minuartia"	07/02/12 Markus Jerominek "Marantaceae - Insights into the inside"
13/12/11 Dr. Mike Pirie "Inferring the origins of biodiversity using the Cape mega-genus Erica"	14/02/12 Peter Kotrade "C4 anatomy in Gisekiaceae"

Die Kolloquien finden jeden Dienstag jeweils um 12 Uhr s.t. im Seminarraum der Speziellen Botanik (SR 275, Bentzelweg 2) statt.

Gäste sind herzlich willkommen!
- Die Professoren der Speziellen Botanik -